Sir,

With reference to your No. 779, dated 24 October 1899 forwarding for report copy of Plague Commissioner's No. 3093, dated 14th October '99 enquiring the nature of Plague work done by me, I have the honor to state that I feel rather reluctant to give myself all the Plague work I did since the commencement of the Plague preventive measures in the City.

2. The extra work done by me since the commencement of Plague operations is on record. The Plague Commissioner and the Senior Surgeon have personally seen the nature of the Plague work done by me and the Plague Officers who received special allowances

3. If they are of opinion that I did no Plague work, I have no right to claim the concession given in Government Proceedings No. 73-112 dated 17 July 1899.

Thanking you

Yours

H. Nanjundaraj Urs
